About us:

All Communication Matters (ACM) is an established, innovative speech pathology private practice with clinics in Hornsby & Erina. We're proud of our supportive environment, supervision and training programs as well as our terrific team of experienced, caring clinicians and administrative staff. If you're looking for a role where you'll be part of a team, make a difference, further develop and your clinical skills, while studying to be a speech pathologist then this is the role for you.

ACM provides speech pathology services to children, adolescents and adults in our clinics and local partner schools. We are looking for 3rd and 4th year or final year graduate entry masters speech pathology students to join our team as Allied Health assistants. Reporting to senior therapists, Allied Health assistants play a key role in delivering therapy (planned by speech pathologists) to clients as well as creating client resources and assisting with associated clinical tasks.

Our Clients:

- We're NDIS registered and support a wide range of NDIS and private child, adolescent and adult clients.
- Typical areas we support include: speech production, oral language, reading, spelling, reading comprehension, written expression, fluency difficulties, pragmatic language and social communication.

About the Role:

- Facilitating sessions as planned by qualified speech pathologists
- Completing progress notes and documentation
- Providing feedback to clients and families about their session and homework.
- Creation of resources for clients, clinicians or groups as directed by speech pathologist
- Assisting with administrative tasks

Essential Criteria:

- Australian Citizen or Permanent Resident
- Currently enrolled in 3rd of 4th year of undergraduate speech pathology degree or final semester of graduate entry masters degree.
- Current Working with Children Check
- Prior clinical experience providing speech pathology therapy services to clients (clinical placements included)
- Understanding of working from a client-centred perspective
- Good time management and organisational skills
- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Commitment to continuous personal and professional quality improvement
- Ability to work both independently and as part of a team

Desirable Criteria:

- Current driver's licence and use of own vehicle (petrol allowance provided)

Why Join Us?

- Join an established, friendly, supportive team
- Work alongside experienced therapists – a great experience that will help you complete your clinical placements and increase your professional experience
- Regular supervision and mentoring with our senior speech pathologists or managers
- Extensive onboarding support
- In-house professional development
- Flexibility in working hours – to support you through placements
- Clinical observation and development opportunities to hone your clinical skills
- Terrific administrative support (e.g. taking payments, answering calls, NDIS & other processes)
- Experience with varied caseload in private practice environment
- Well-equipped office including extensive resources, assessments and IT systems (including cloud based software for electronic scheduling and client records)
- Opportunity to transition to speech pathologist role with ACM as you complete your degree
